

1. An African lion weighs 440kg. A bison weighs 670kg. How much heavier is the bison than the lion?
2. A chimpanzee weighs 52kg. A zebra weighs 408kg. What is the combined weight of the two animals?
3. A grocer splits a 75kg tub of apples into five smaller tubs. Each tub holds the same amount. How many kilograms of apples are in each tub?
4. A farmer loads two sacks of carrots into a box. The total weight of the two sacks is 129kg. One sack weighs 90kg. What is the weight of the other sack?
5. I had some sugar in a bag. I added another 250g to give me a total of 375g of sugar. How much sugar did I have to begin with?