

Gingerbread Man (Permission Slip)

On August 26th, our class will be doing a fun activity to help the students get to know the layout of our school. At the end of this activity, we will be decorating a sugar cookie (gingerbread man) and then we will eat them. Quest's policy states that we are required to have a permission slip signed before we can allow your student to eat anything. Please sign the permission slip below and return it as soon as possible. Thank you.
